TEACHER APPRECIATION WEEK

Did you know that next week is Teacher Appreciation Week?

Teachers play a key role in student success and sometime a simple “thanks” means a great deal to a teacher. Take the time to celebrate your children’s teachers during 2017 Teacher Appreciation Week, May 1-5.

SECOND ANNUAL EARTH DAY EVENT
HARRISON COUNTY, INDIANA
APRIL 29, 2017

Event: County-wide litter cleanup, recycling and earth day education.

Where and when: Volunteers can register Saturday at 9:00 am at the recycling centers in Corydon and Elizabeth, the fire stations in Central, Lanesville, New Middletown, and Ramsey, Central Barren UMC in New Salisbury, and the Community Center in Crandall. The Lions Clubs will handle registration, safety vests and bags. Please dress appropriately (jeans, long sleeve shirts, work gloves and sturdy shoes or boots), and bring drinking water.

See the Corydon Democrat, The Clarion News or Facebook (<https://m.facebook.com/HCEnvirAware/>) for more details about this event, sharing your activities and posting photos. Please use #HCEarthDay17on all posts and pictures on social media.
